- Democratic Party: Voters affiliated with the Democratic Party can only vote a Democratic Party ballot. Their mail ballot packets will contain only the Democratic Party ballot, and they can only be issued a Democratic Party ballot at a Voter Service and Polling Center if they choose to vote in-person.
- Republicans: Voters affiliated with the Republican Party can only vote a Republican Party ballot. Their mail ballot packets will contain only the Republican Party ballot style, and they will be issued a Republican Party ballot at a Voter Service and Polling Center if they choose to vote in-person.
- Unaffiliated Voters: Unaffiliated voters may vote in the 2018 Primary Election in several ways:
 - Affiliate with Democratic or Republican Parties: Eligible electors who are not affiliated with a political party may declare an affiliation with a participating political party and vote in the primary election. Unaffiliated voters who affiliate with the Democratic Party or Republican Party by May 29, 2018, will receive only that party's ballot in their mail ballot packet. They may also affiliate with one of the participating political party and vote that party's ballot in-person by visiting a Voter Service and Polling Center. (See Polling Locations, above).
 - Ballot Preference: Unaffiliated voters may also specify a ballot preference by May 29, 2018. Unaffiliated voters who declare a ballot preference do not formally affiliate themselves with a political party; rather, they simply direct the Clerk and Recorder to include only the preferred ballot in their mail ballot packet. Unaffiliated voters with a ballot preference may also visit a Voter Service and Polling Center and vote either party ballot in-person, so long as they have not already returned their mail ballot. Unaffiliated voters may declare a ballot preference for the 2018 Primary Election at GoVoteColorado.com
 - Do Nothing and Receive Both Ballots: Unaffiliated voters who do not formally affiliate with a political party or declare a ballot preference by May 29th will receive mail ballot packets containing both a Democratic Party and a Republican Party ballot. Unaffiliated voters who receive both party ballots in their mail ballot packets may mark and return only one ballot. If they mark and return both party ballots, neither will count.
 - Registering to Vote after May 29th: If you are not registered to vote in Colorado, and are a citizen of the United States, will have attained the age of 18 years and resided in Colorado for at least 22 days by June 26, 2018 (Election Day), you can register to vote until 7 pm on Election Day. If you want to receive a mail ballot packet, you must do so before June 18, 2018; otherwise you will need to visit a Voter Service and Polling Center to vote. You can register to vote or update your existing voter registration at GoVoteColorado.com, a Voter Service and Polling Center (see Polling Locations, above), or the Pueblo Clerk and Recorder's office at 720 N. Main St., Ste. 200.
